

GLOBAL LINKS

A cross-cultural exchange program sponsoring female scholars from emerging countries to gain specialized training to share with their students and local female entrepreneurs.

Our five year goal includes expanding the Global Links program to multiple emerging markets

Over 4,000 students, faculty & staff received social entrepreneurship training through our Train the Trainer model

Participants mentored over 120 female entrepreneurs in their local community

THE GLOBAL LINKS MODEL two year program cycle

Women in India and other developing countries continue to face many cultural, societal and educational barriers to labor force entry and economic empowerment.

Partner Opportunities

- Join forces with other companies supporting women's entrepreneurship
- Impact hundreds of women scholars, students, and community members through train-the-trainer model
- Support cross-cultural exchange & learning and strengthen relationships with global markets
- Gain visibility in promotional materials and media placements

MEET OUR GLOBAL LINKS SCHOLARS

2012 to 2014
Dr. Amel Abed Mohammed-Ali
Babylon University, Iraq

2015 to 2017
Dr. Sharmistha Banerjee
University of Calcutta, India

2017 to 2019
Dr. Rumpa Chakraborty
Shri Shikshayatan College, India

By 2020, the working age population in India will reach 856M = a need for 10M jobs per year.

A public-private partnership between U.S. Department of State's Office of Global Women's Issues, Tupperware Brands Corporation and Rollins College.

